

DOC XVIII, n. 137 (JOIN(2016) 18, COM (2016) 230, COM(2016) 205)

On 6 July 2016 the Senate Standing Committee on Constitutional Affairs, Prime Ministerial and Home Affairs, General Organisation of the State and the Civil Service adopted a resolution, committing the Government to:

- 1) support the High Representative for foreign affairs and security policy and the European external action service in implementing the Joint framework for countering hybrid threats in the EU;
- 2) acknowledge that an appropriate cybersecurity strategy is to be developed at European level, in the framework of the Common Security and Defense Policy and with the input of the European Defense Agency;
- 3) tighten controls on social media and simplify the immediate removal of web pages and accounts containing terrorist propaganda;
- 4) diversify as much as possible European energy sources, as well as suppliers and routes, so as to ensure a safer supply;
- 5) support the digital common market in order to prevent digital attacks;
- 6) increase efforts against crime and terror financing in order to identify and stop suspicious money transfers;
- 7) give prompt implementation to commitments taken in the framework of EU fight against hybrid threats.

On 18 May 2016, the Senate Standing Committee on Defence adopted a positive resolution, expressing some of the qualifications later confirmed by the Committee on Constitutional Affairs, Prime Ministerial and Home Affairs, General Organisation of the State and the Civil Service.