Dear 5.1.2.e

I contact you from the parliamentary team at the OECD, where we coordinate the work of the OECD Global Parliamentary Network.

We wanted to alert you about an online session that could be of interest to the members of the Committee on Health, Welfare and Sport, with a focus on the Economic benefits of addressing mental health.

The Head of the OECD Health Division, Francesca Colombo, will share the latest OECD work on the topic, with a particular emphasis on the publication Mental Health Promotion and Prevention, which will be released the day before.

It will take place this Friday at 15.00 (CEST), and it is open to both MPs and parliamentary officials/secretariat staff.

The session will include a presentation by Ms. Colombo, followed by time for Q&A and exchange.

More information and the registration link are below.

We would very much appreciate having participation from the Committee on Health, Welfare and Sport in the session, and remain available for any questions you may have.

With many thanks in advance, and kind regards,
