Dear Ms. 5.1.2.e 5.1.2.e

We contact you from the parliamentary liaison team at the OECD regarding an upcoming activity that could be of relevance to the Committee for Education, Culture and Science in the Dutch Senate.

As you may be aware, the OECD has a Global Parliamentary Network, whose activities are open to serving legislators, as well as parliamentary advisers and officials.

We are organising an online seminar for parliaments on 'Supporting new teachers: findings from the OECD's Teaching and Learning International Survey (TALIS) 2024', which will take place on Thursday 27 November at 3 p.m. (Paris time).

The aim of TALIS is to help policymakers and education leaders develop evidence-based strategies to improve the quality of teaching and learning environments. In 2024, some 280,000 teachers and headteachers from 17,000 lower secondary schools in 55 education systems were surveyed.

This seminar is aimed at legislators, advisers and parliamentary secretariat staff.

The participation of the Dutch Senate in this seminar would be greatly appreciated, and we believe that this topic could be of interest to the members of your committee, as well as to secretariat staff.

You will find all the practical information and the registration link in the attached invitation, which you may distribute as you see fit.

Finally, I would also like to inform you that the OECD's parliamentary relations team is tasked with facilitating access for parliaments to OECD analysis and data.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you would like further information on this subject or if you have any questions about next week's session.

Many thanks!

All the best,
