C) There shall be written the full name of the candidate.

D) There shall be inscribed the specification “Independent Candidate”; it shall be printed a distinct quadrilateral for each independent candidate at the end of the ballot paper; their names shall be listed in the order of candidature registration. (The independent candidate has no electoral sign.)

E) There shall be written the full name of the independent candidate.

NOTE:

– The paper necessary for the printing of ballot papers shall be provided for from the state reserves.

– The quadrilaterals shall be printed in parallel lines to one another, 6 on each page, and the distance between them shall be larger than the diameter of the stamp bearing the specification “Voted”.

– The second page of the ballot paper (back side of front cover) shall be blank, only the page number – figure 2 – shall be written in the footer.

– The ballot paper page format shall be A4.

– The last but one page of the ballot paper (back side of back cover) shall be blank, only the page number shall be written in the footer.

– The last page of the ballot paper shall be blank, so that the control stamp may be affixed on it.

– The full name, as well as the words to be inscribed within the quadrilateral shall be printed in straight capitals, font size 12.

– The pages of the ballot paper, except for the first and last page, shall be numbered.

– The quadrilaterals shall also be numbered.

– The ballot papers shall be stapled or glued.

– The electoral sign shall be printed within a graphic space of 2 cm x 2 cm.
